IMPORTANCE OF KEEPING SCHEDULED VISITS

As a patient at our office, we have the responsibility to provide approved treatment to you per your Doctor's prescription. In many cases, the Doctor's prescription requires you to participate in weekly therapy visits for a specified period of time.

NOTE: All insurance carriers require that a patient receive physical therapy based on a written Doctor's prescription. According to your condition and diagnosis, your physical therapy program was designed uniquely for you by the Physical Therapist. To be sure that the maximum benefit of physical therapy is obtained, the consistency of your visits is very important.

We require that you notify our office 24 hours prior to cancellation of an appointment or there will be a $50.00 charge which is not covered by your insurance.

* Children are NOT allowed in the gym area or on any of the gym equipment. They can sit in the waiting room and are allowed in the treatment room with you.

If you have any questions, please see the front desk.

Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how your health information may be used and disclosed and how you can access this information. Please review it carefully.

The following information is being furnished to you as required under the Standards for Privacy of Individually Identifiable Health Information published by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 164 under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996. Contact information for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services is contained at the end of this notice.

1. At New Life Physical Therapy, Inc. (New Life), we have always kept your health information secure and confidential. A new law requires us to continue maintaining your privacy, to disclose your health information to those involved in your treatment. For example, we routinely share your continuing progress with your physician, to keep him updated as to your treatment here at New Life.

2. We may use or disclose your health information for payment of your services or disclose your health information for our normal healthcare operations. For example, one of our staff will enter your information into our computer. We may share your medical information with our business associates, such as a billing service. We have a written contract with each business associate that requires them to protect your privacy.

3. We may use your information to contact you. We may want to call and remind you of appointments. If you are not home, we may leave this information on your answering machine or with the person who answers the telephone. In an emergency, we may disclose your health information to a family member or another person responsible for your care. We may release some or all of your health information when required by law.

4. If this practice is sold, your information will become the property of the new owner. The new owner assumes the accountability for your protected health information.

5. Except as described above, the practice will not use or disclose your health information without your prior written authorization. You may request in writing that we not use or disclose your health information as described above. We will let you know if we can fulfill your request. You have the right to know of any uses or disclosures we make with your health information beyond the above normal uses.
