NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how your health information may be used and disclosed and how you can access this information. Please review it carefully.

The following information is being furnished to you as required under the Standards for Privacy of Individually Identifiable Health Information published by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 164 under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996. Contact information for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services is contained at the end of this notice.

1. At New Life Physical Therapy, Inc. (New Life), we have always kept your health information secure and confidential. A new law requires us to continue maintaining your privacy, to disclose your health information to those involved in your treatment. For example, we routinely share your continuing progress with your physician, to keep him updated as to your treatment here at New Life.

2. We may use or disclose your health information for payment of your services or disclose your health information for our normal healthcare operations. For example, one of our staff will enter your information into our computer. We may share your medical information with our business associates, such as a billing service. We have a written contract with each business associate that requires them to protect your privacy.

3. We may use your information to contact you. We may want to call and remind you of appointments. If you are not home, we may leave this information on your answering machine or with the person who answers the telephone. In an emergency, we may disclose your health information to a family member or another person responsible for your care. We may release some or all of your health information when required by law.

4. If this practice is sold, your information will become the property of the new owner. The new owner assumes the accountability for your protected health information.

5. Except as described above, the practice will not use or disclose your health information without your prior written authorization. You may request in writing that we not use or disclose your health information as described above. We will let you know if we can fulfill your request. You have the right to know of any uses or disclosures we make with your health information beyond the above normal uses.

6. As we will need to contact you from time to time, we will use whatever address or telephone number you prefer.

7. You have the right to transfer copies of your health information to another practice. We will make copies available for you to pick up. A nominal fee may be charged for copying or mailing.

8. You have the right to see and receive a copy of your health information, with a few exceptions. Give us a written request regarding the information you want to see. If you also want a copy of your records, we may charge you a reasonable fee for the copies.

9. You have the right to request an amendment or change to your health information. Give us your request to make changes in writing. We may or may not make the changes you request, but will be happy to include your statement in your file. If we agree to an amendment or change, we will not remove nor alter earlier documents, but will add new information.

10. You have the right to receive a copy of this notice.

11. If we change any of the details of this notice, we will notify you of the changes in writing.

12. You may file a complaint with the Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independent Avenue, S.W., Room 509F, Washington DC, 20201. You will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.

13. However, before filing a complaint, or for more information or assistance regarding your health information privacy, please contact our office at (714) 848-7191.

This notice goes into effect as of April 14, 2003.

I have read and acknowledged and understand New Life Physical Therapy, Inc. Notice of Privacy Practices.

LATE CANCELLATION AND NO-SHOW POLICY

Effective January 1, 2024

Our goal is to provide quality physical therapy treatment. When appointments are missed or canceled without a timely notice, it leaves openings that could be used by other patients.

We strive to make every effort to remind you of your appointments. It is necessary for you, as the patient, to cancel your appointment in a timely manner.

Therefore, we require that you please notify us of your cancellation at least 24 HOURS in advanced. This allows us time to allocate that appointment to another patient. If your attempt to notify us is not met (ie. we are closed or out of the office), please leave a message on our answering machine with details as to why you are cancelling and for which day(s). We will get back to you as promptly as possible.

Please note that if a timely notification is not given or if you fail to show up to your appointment, you will be charged a $50.00 cancellation fee.

Thank you very much for your cooperation.

I, the patient, agree to the cancellation and no-show policy set forth above
